

Alpine Adventures: Mt Aspiring

The mountain calls out and with grand dreams many make their attempt; but all the planning in the world cant change the forces of nature. This is a true story and a window into the world of mountaineering. It follows the journey of four relatively inexperienced mountaineers as they face the elements in their quest for the summit. Delve into the journey first hand and experience the highs and lows and the danger and exhilaration of this epic adventure where avalanche, ice fall, weather, crevasse falls and exhaustion all play their hand.
