Adoptees/Birthmother Search Book, Reunited, is a search handbook for , Adult Adoptees, Birth-mothers, Siblings and Family members who are searching. This handbook was created by Professional Adoptee Researcher: Marria Guzman, this book was put together for every person that is searching for their biological family. This book combines 25 years of my searching and reuniting experiences, as well as my personal search tips and provides searching information for every state. My reunion stories have been written up in several media outlets including the Washington Post. Everyone deserves to know who they are, and what happened to the child they put up for adoption.
