

For too long, we women have been assaulted with historical and spiritual falsehoods concerning our first spiritual mothers in the Bible. It is difficult for women to understand their identity and role in the kingdom of God apart from the study of Gods work in the lives of his people. In Message of the Matriarchs Barbara B. Gardner takes a fresh look at Sarah, Rebekah, Rachel, and Leah, the women who along with their husbands helped build the nation of Israel. See the grace and glory of God at work in their lives and learn how it applies today. The second half is an exploration of the biblical meaning of marriage, motherhood, and what it means to be a daughter of God. The author inspires new millennium matriarchs to make their story about Gods glory. Women will see the beauty of biblical womanhood and complementary roles in the home and church.
